All Breed Obedience Club is a non-profit group dedicated to the development of the canine/human bond. We foster the three levels of dog ownership that a dog can be: a pet, a companion, and a partner. Our various activities are centrally located and include classes, practice sessions, Show & Goes, Flyball, Obedience Trials, and more! Our club includes experienced dog trainers offering classes to the public.

🐕 For Puppies 8 weeks old to 4 ½ months old.	🐕 $75 per puppy– Make check out to All Breed Obedience Club, Inc.
🐕 Clickers recommended, not required	🐕 Monday evenings, 6:30 – 7:30 p.m. (Ongoing class - $75 fee covers 7 weeks)

Learn how to teach your puppy to be a good family pet and good neighbor. We concentrate on basic manners, handling and puppy obedience. We will assist you in dealing with common behavior issues such as jumping up, puppy play biting, chewing and housetraining. Puppy socialization is also a part of every session, both with people and with other puppies (and maybe an assistant dog). We'll cover:

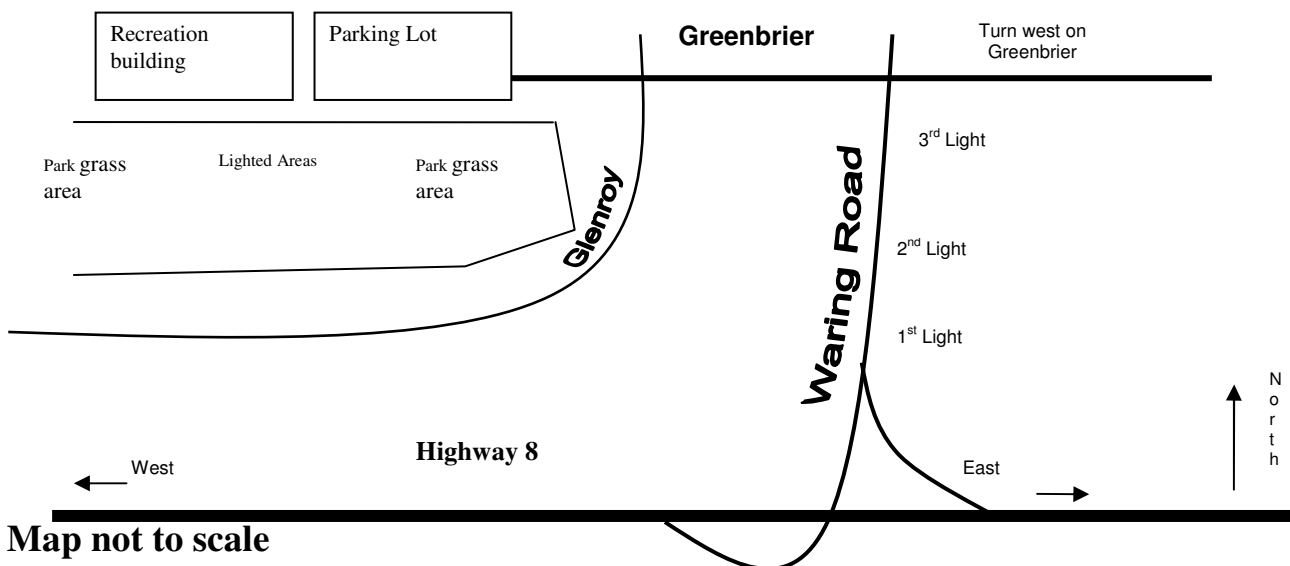

Sit	Attention	Down	Settle	Come	Polite walking	Target	Stand	Take It	Leave It
-----	-----------	------	--------	------	----------------	--------	-------	---------	----------

Please bring a chair or blanket for you to sit on, especially for family members who accompany you. Dress appropriately; the field can be damp and/or cold at times.

If you have any questions, or have any issues you need to discuss before the first class, please feel free to call the instructor, Kris Smelser, at 760-643-9469 or send e-mail to kris.smelser@gmail.com.
